Resolution of World Peace Council setting up this conference. Statements of preparatory committee on opening session. Report by Chief Delegate Nan Han-ch'en covers economic developments in China since 1949, and includes some actual as well as percentage figures on industrial and agricultural production, employment, and foreign trade. Nan's report to the subcommittee on backward areas is primarily promotional and discusses prospects for trade with these areas.

Report by Liu Tzu-ju to the subcommittee on "promotion of international cooperation."

Decision to set up "Committee for the Promotion of International Trade," and the conference memorandum to the UN.

Appendix includes texts of 1952 Sino-Japanese, and Sino-British trade agreements as well as a running account of conference.
